A simple tool for quickly and easily converting JPEG, GIF and BMP files to PDF, as well as Microsoft Word documents and RTF files to PDF. Riot police fired tear gas and rubber bullets to disperse crowds of migrant protesters in Calais on Tuesday evening, injuring a number of people. Around a dozen migrants took part in a riot after the scuffle broke out around 6pm, according to a statement from French police. Pictures taken of the scene showed a large police presence and crowds of migrants, some of whom were seen throwing stones. The clashes broke out after a group of migrants set fire to the French police car and made several attempts to get on a freight train that arrived at the port. There have been a series of incidents in the port this year, with a total of 31 fires set at the port in the last four months. Officials said that 12 people were arrested on Monday night and more than 20 have been detained since the beginning of July. On June 17, the first day of free movement for migrants in the EU after Brexit, the Calais camp, known as the Jungle, was dismantled by police and fire fighters amid chaos and clashes. At the time, the Prime Minister,

Theresa May, said the migrants who were caught and processed would be flown to Britain, the first batch of whom have been taken to the UK. "We must never let people smugglers exploit the distress of migrants to undermine our border security," Mrs May said at the time. Tesla's new Roadster may be all electric but it's certainly not completely silent. In fact, the company claims the car can reach more than 95db, a level of sound never before heard in an electric car. We had a chance to listen to the Roadster for ourselves and give you some of the best sounds from the new EV. Below, you'll find a sound clip of a ride in the Roadster and a list of the best sounds you can hear in the car. Read next: A guide to the Roadster's best driving features First and foremost, the Roadster's sound system offers 14 channels of sound. A headphone jack lets you use wireless earbuds to enjoy the music in the car while it's traveling along the highway. The upper-end speakers are tuned to produce sound that's crisp and clear, but not so loud that you'll be uncomfortable
